COMPLAINT

A. INTRODUCTION

1. This Complaint is brought pursuant to the Virginia Fraud and Abuse Whistle Blower Protection Act ("Act"), Virginia Code §§2.2-3009, et seq.
2. It is the policy of the Commonwealth of Virginia that citizens and governmental employees be able to freely report instances of wrongdoing or abuse committed by governmental agencies.

B. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This Court maintains subject matter jurisdiction over this civil action pursuant to, inter alia, the provisions of Virginia Code §2.2-3011 (D). Moreover, venue is appropriate in this Court pursuant to the provisions of Virginia Code §2.2-3011 (D).
4. This Court maintains personal jurisdiction over these defendants due to the fact that a) the defendants regularly conduct business and work in the City of Richmond; and, b) all the acts complained of herein, by these defendants, occurred in the City of Richmond.

C. PARTIES

5. Plaintiff L. Douglas Wilder is employed by Virginia Commonwealth University ("VCU") and is a Distinguished Professor at the L. Douglas Wilder School of Government and Public Affairs ("Wilder School").
6. Michael Rao is the President of VCU.
7. Gail Hackett is the Provost of VCU.
8. John Accordino is the Dean of the Wilder School.
9. VCU is a public university established by the Commonwealth of Virginia.

D. STATEMENT OF FACTS

10. VCU and the Wilder School are governmental agencies as contemplated by the Act.
11. L. Douglas Wilder is a citizen and a governmental employee, as contemplated by the Act.
12. On or about November 7, 2017, John Accordino arrived at Professor Wilder's office, while Professor Wilder was absent. John Accordino then proceeded to verbally assault and abuse Ms. Angelica Bega, Professor Wilder's Administrative Assistant.
13. John Accordino called Ms. Bega obscene names, accused her of violating VCU human resources rules, questioned and insulted her intelligence, threatened her employment with VCU, and generally disparaged her humanity.
14. John Accordino's verbal assault and abuse directed to Ms. Bega was such that others within the department, throughout the building, heard his harangue.
15. Dr. Kristine Artello, an associate professor at the Wilder School, notified Professor Wilder of the event, which she heard while sitting in her office with the door closed. Dr. Artello volunteered to provide a written account of John Accordino's abusive behavior.
16. Professor Wilder notified both Provost Hackett and President Rao of John Accordino's abusive behavior and Dr. Artello's account of such abusive behavior. Professor Wilder's notification was made in good faith.
17. Professor Wilder later met in January 2018 with President Rao, Provost Hackett and Kevin Allison, President Rao's Senior Assistant. Professor Wilder met with these individuals in good faith.
18. In the course of the January 2018 meeting, Provost Hackett assured all in attendance that her office's investigation revealed that Ms. Bega was uninterested in filing a complaint against John Accordino.

19. The Provost's "investigation" consisted of Asher Nasim, a Provost office employee, arriving unannounced at Ms. Bega's work one day, insisting on an immediate interview concerning her allegations. Mr. Nasim gave Ms. Bega no notice and no time to prepare. Mr. Nasim did not conduct his "interview" with Ms. Bega in a quiet, confidential VCU facility such as a conference room; rather, Mr. Nasim insisted that Ms. Bega accompany him on a walk through the streets of VCU's Richmond neighborhood. Mr. Nasim questioned Ms. Bega for approximately 45 minutes and took no contemporaneous notes about their discussion.
20. Professor Wilder questioned Provost Hackett's assurances, and in the presence of all in attendance, telephoned Ms. Bega via speakerphone. During that telephone call, Ms. Bega expressed unequivocally her desire that her complaint move forward. Ms. Bega further questioned how Provost Hackett reached her conclusion that Ms. Bega did not wish for her complaint to proceed.
21. Upon being confronted with Ms. Bega's statements, it was conceded that Ms. Bega had never stated that she did not wish for her complaint to move forward. Indeed, Mr. Nasim never asked Ms. Bega if she wished to go forward with her complaint, despite reporting that she did not wish to proceed.
22. Professor Wilder informed President Rao and Provost Hackett that based upon these revelations, it was clear that the Provost's Office was compromised and unable to fairly process Ms. Bega's complaint.
23. Professor Wilder then reported John Accordino's abusive behavior directly to VCU's Human Resources Department and President Rao, identifying it as sexual harassment and racial and sexual discrimination. Professor Wilder's reporting was done in good faith.

24. VCU retained an out-of-State law firm to investigate the claims of sexual harassment and racial and sexual discrimination.
25. Upon information and belief, other, additional claims of sexual harassment and racial discrimination were levied against John Accordino.
26. Upon information and belief, the independent investigators informally informed VCU, Professor Wilder now understands, that the claims against John Accordino were credible and supported by the evidence adduced by the investigation.
27. Despite the presence of the ongoing independent investigation, Provost Hackett's staff, at her direction, confronted Ms. Bega to ensure that she stood by her allegations and wished for her complaint to proceed against John Accordino.
28. President Rao was aware of Provost Hackett's interference with the independent investigation.
29. At no time did VCU take any affirmative steps to protect the complaining staff victimized by John Accordino's abusive, improper and unprofessional behavior. Specifically, VCU failed to even suspend John Accordino, leaving him in a superior and supervisory position over those complaining against him.
30. From his position as Dean of the Wilder School, John Accordino engaged in continued confrontational, abusive behavior towards those staff members who complained about him.
31. Professor Wilder repeatedly implored President Rao to act to address John Accordino's abusive behavior.
32. President Rao refused to act to discipline or restrain John Accordino.

33. Emboldened by President Rao's refusal to restrain or discipline him, John Accordino engaged an attorney and has threatened litigation against Professor Wilder and others, if any steps were taken to address the complaints against him.

E. CAUSE OF ACTION

(Discrimination And Retaliation By Defendants Against Plaintiff)

34. Professor Wilder repeats and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-33.
35. John Accordino's abusive actions toward Ms. Bega and others were unjustified and unprofessional.
36. John Accordino's abusive actions toward Ms. Bega and others contravened VCU rules and regulations, as well as the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia and the United States of America.
37. John Accordino's abusive actions toward Ms. Bega and others constituted malfeasance and maladministration, in violation of his employment contract and the best interests of VCU.
38. President Rao's refusal to properly address John Accordino's abusive actions constituted malfeasance and maladministration, in violation of his duty to serve the best interests of VCU.
39. Provost Hackett's conduct of a farcical and corrupt investigation into John Accordino's abusive actions, constituted malfeasance and maladministration, in violation of her duty to serve the best interests of VCU.
40. Indeed, VCU's farcical and corrupt investigation into John Accordino's abusive actions continued after its conclusion, including revisiting the matter with Angelica Bega, and with the promotion of Asher Nasim. Professor Wilder submits that these actions were taken with the intent to cover up John Accordino's wrongdoing.

40. Provost Hackett's interference with the independent investigation of John Accordino's abusive actions, constituted malfeasance, maladministration, intimidation and retaliation, in violation of VCU's rules and regulations, the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia and of the United States of America.

41. President Rao's and Provost Hackett's actions, by omission and by commission, evidence a complicity with John Accordino, ratifying and tolerating his abusive behavior toward VCU staff.

42. By their actions, President Rao, Provost Hackett and John Accordino have violated their duties owed to VCU, as well as their respective employment contracts.

43. The failure of President Rao and Provost Hackett to properly address the complaints against John Accordino has resulted in increased abuse of staff, causing Professor Wilder and others to suffer mental and physical anguish, as well as the loss of reputation and standing in the VCU academic community.

44. As a direct and proximate result of President Rao's, Provost Hackett's and John Accordino's actions, Professor Wilder, Angelica Bega, unnamed other complainants, and the entire VCU academic community have suffered damages.

F. PRAAYER FOR RELIEF

THEREFORE, Professor Wilder having fully plead his Complaint, seeks judgment and relief from the Court as follows, for:

i. A Declaratory Judgment against President Rao and Provost Hackett, declaring that they failed in their respective duties to administer their offices in a manner consistent with VCU rules and regulations, their respective employment contracts, the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia and the United States of America, as well as the best interests of the VCU academic community;

ii. A Declaratory Judgment against John Accordino, declaring his abusive actions a violation of VCU rules and regulations, his employment contract, the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia and the United States of America, as well as the best interests of the VCU academic community;

iii. A civil penalty be imposed against VCU as provided by Virginia Code §2.2-3011 (D), in the amount of two thousand, five hundred dollars ($2,500.00);

iv. An injunction against VCU, its officers and staff, from retaliating further, in the present and in the future, against Professor Wilder, Angelica Bega, and any other VCU staff or faculty member who complained about, or provided evidence concerning, John Accordino's abusive actions;

v. An award of Professor Wilder's attorneys' fees and costs in bringing this civil action; and

vi. Such other and further relief as may be provided by law or in equity, as this Court may deem just.
